

peopleprojects

14 September 2010

(Excerpted from the Newsletter of The Association of Professional Engineers of Nova Scotia)

On June 17, 2010, Sarah Devereaux, P.Eng., became the president of Consulting Engineers of Nova Scotia (CENS). Sarah is the first female president of CENS. She serves as a councillor for Engineers Nova Scotia and is treasurer of the Atlantic Canada Chapter of the Solid Waste Association of North America. As well, Sarah is a member of the Women in Engineering Advisory Group for Engineers Canada.

With over 16 years' experience at Dillon, Sarah has been active in numerous initiatives including the Leadership Roundtable, Employment Equity Committee and Joint Occupational Health and Safety Committee. She became one of Dillon's first LEED Accredited Professionals.

Sarah volunteers her time with a number of charities including the Salvation Army and the Cancer Society.

CONGRATULATIONS ON YOUR ACHIEVEMENT SARAH !