

Leaders In The Field

Over the past 30 years, our Planning and Development Practice has grown into one of Canada's outstanding planning consultancies. As a leader in the field, we have developed new approaches to strategic planning, ecosystem-based planning, brownfield redevelopment, integrated land use/infrastructure planning and sustainable community design. These concepts have been successfully incorporated into a wide variety of assignments, including policy development, community plans and urban/rural developments.

Experience

Our staff has expertise and experience to provide creative solutions related to:

- brownfield restoration
- risk assessment and environmental management
- waterfronts, ports and harbours
- golf courses, recreation and tourism facilities
- urban redevelopment
- real estate analysis and management
- strategic planning
- infrastructure development
- urban design
- development planning and approvals
- planning policy and development control
- organizational design
- public consultation

Geographic Coverage

Dillon has offices across Canada, providing us with unsurpassed local knowledge. We understand your community and how you do business, and we know how to meet the unique needs of your organization. Blended with our ability to mobilize resources wherever they exist in our firm, our complete team of experts is accessible through any one of our local offices.

True "One Stop Shopping"

All of our planning professionals are backed by 500 people in over 30 disciplines, such as environmental science, building design, engineering, hydrogeology, water resources, risk assessment, transportation planning, air quality, and health and safety. This allows us to see your project through a "wide-angle lens", recognizing and resolving issues which may be overlooked by narrower firms.

Serving Both Public and Private Sectors

Public sector clients trust our judgement and appreciate our ability to work with stakeholders. Private sector clients take comfort in knowing that solutions are delivered on-time and on-budget. From our exposure to both, you benefit from a consultant with a truly balanced perspective.

